Tell me more about Rezound!

Established in June of 2001, Kansas City's Rezound! Handbell Ensemble is an auditioned community handbell ensemble organized to promote the art and skill of handbell ringing through performances, educational events, and community engagement.

The ensemble is guided by its Artistic Director, Janet Carter, who brings years of teaching, conducting, and organizing skills to the group. The member musicians are all volunteers and are selected annually by an adjudicated audition process.

As a performance ensemble, Rezound! captivates audiences with an expressive and engaging style. Rezound! has enjoyed collaborative performances locally with the Kansas City Symphony and Symphony Chorus, the Jacomo Chorale, the Raytown Community Choir, the William Baker Festival Singers and numerous area handbell choirs. This December, we will be performing alongside the St. Joseph Community Chorus on their "Christmas at the Cathedral" concerts.

Rezound! has also had the honor of acting as musical ambassadors for our hometown by performing throughout the Midwest on our summer tours and being featured at national and international conferences, including:

- Handbell Musicians of America Pinnacle 2025 (National Conference) / Wichita, KS
- Handbell Musicians of America Area 8 Festival 2024 / Columbia, MO
- Handbell Musicians of America National Seminar 2019 / St. Louis, MO
- Handbell Musicians of America Area 8 Festival 2016 / Springfield, IL
- Handbell Musicians of America Pinnacle 2015 (National Conference) / Dallas, TX
- International Scientific Symposium 2011 / Kansas City, MO
- Community of Christ World Conference 2004 / Independence, MO

The ensemble organizes workshops for handbell musicians of all skill levels, encouraging them to learn new techniques and hone their musicality. Rezound! members are also available to lead individual coaching sessions and masterclasses for local handbell groups.

It is important to all our members that we give back to the community that has supported us so faithfully through the years. To this end, small groups from the ensemble volunteer their time for presentations in the city's music classrooms, introducing a new generation to this unique art form. The entire ensemble always looks forward to entertaining the men of the Salvation Army's Adult Rehabilitation Center by gifting an annual holiday concert for them.
